

Before You Hire an E-Bike Injury Lawyer

A practical consultation checklist for parents of injured child riders

Bring this to your consultation. Use these questions to compare lawyers and identify the information that still needs investigation. You don't need every record to get started.

01

Questions to Ask the Lawyer

10 essential questions

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☐ Who will handle my child's case and provide updates? | ☐ How will you verify the e-bike's legal classification? |
| ☐ How will you investigate disputed police findings? | ☐ What evidence needs immediate preservation? |
| ☐ How will you assess my child's injuries and future needs? | ☐ Who represents my child and makes legal decisions? |
| ☐ How are attorney fees and case costs handled? | ☐ How will you handle settlement approval and my child's funds? |
| ☐ What similar cases have you handled? | ☐ What facts remain unresolved? |

02

Records to Bring

Whatever you already have available

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Police report or incident number | ☐ Collision, e-bike, and injury photos or videos |
| ☐ E-bike specifications and purchase records | ☐ Witness names and contact information |
| ☐ Medical records and treatment plans | ☐ School absences and activity limitations |
| ☐ Insurance letters and claim information | ☐ Disputed facts and unanswered questions |