INJURY LAWYERS

Hurt while delivering through someone else's account?

A Checklist for Your Lawyer

For each item, write down what you know, gather the records you have, and note what you want your lawyer to check.

- [ ] Who made the delivery
  Write down who was driving or riding. Bring the crash report or witness contact details if you have them.

- [ ] Whose account was used
  Note whose name appeared on the order and who accepted it, if you know. Bring any order records or texts you already have.

- [ ] What vehicle you used
  Note the vehicle type, who owned it, and whether you borrowed or rented it. Bring a photo, registration, or rental receipt if available.

- [ ] What you were doing when you got hurt
  Note whether you were heading to pick up the order or had already picked it up. Bring any receipts, timestamps, or location records you have.

- [ ] Who arranged the work
  Write down who asked you to make the delivery and who was supposed to pay you. Bring any messages or agreements about the work.

- [ ] What insurance was in place
  Bring any insurance cards, policies, or claim letters you have. Ask your lawyer which policies were active and whether any could cover your injuries.
